Service Information Sheet

Health & Safety Coordinator for the Implementation Phase (H&SCI)

Objective

Advising the H&S Coordinator when determining control measures needed during work on the rail infrastructure.

Description

The H&S Coordinator for the Implementation Phase defines the regulations for setting up a safe workplace. The necessary measures are determined based on the hygienic work strategy. Any remaining risks are also controlled as much as possible. The risk analysis and defined regulations comprise part of the H&S plan for the Implementation Phase.

The H&S Coordinator for the Implementation Phase is responsible for the creation and the content (quality) of this plan. A field specialist can also assist as needed.

Disc employs field experts who have completed H&S-CE training in addition to JSS or SSS training.

Below are some of the services provided:

- Evaluating the H&S plan for the design phase as well as the H&S dossier for the design phase.
- Creating a project specific risk analysis.
- Creating and actualizing an H&S-(partial) plan for the Implementation Phase.
